FLOOR DEBATE

February 11, 2004 LB 279, 452

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: The affidavit part is, yes.

SENATOR CUDABACK: We're not making anything new, in other words.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Not the affidavit part, no.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Yeah. That's my question. Yeah. Thank you.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: This clarifies that...

SENATOR CUDABACK: It just clarifies.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Uh-huh.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Nothing new.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, it says that if you falsely stated that affidavit then that...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Oh, okay. Yeah, outside of that, yeah. Yeah. Okay. Thank you, Senator Wehrbein.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you. Thank you, Senator Cudaback and Senator Wehrbein. Senator Wehrbein, your light is next.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker and members. I want to say, Senator Chambers, this has had a hearing, to a degree. We...this...I wanted to indicate there has been a hearing on penalties. The penalties that were in Senator Smith's bill, which was LB 452, there was some penalties heard in that one and it was on...it was a very stiff penalty, $50 to $100 for late registration. So I'll admit this has gone to a smaller penalty, which is at 14 percent interest on motor vehicle taxes only. There's no penalty on the registration. So there has been a hearing on the penalty part, but this has shifted from a 14 percent interest rate...or I mean to a 14 percent interest rate, and that is via input from county treasurers, mostly, because we have a 14 percent interest penalty now on real estate. This also says it will be due on delinquent motor vehicle taxes only. Not the sales tax, not the
